8th Annual
Donald Wasylkenki
Education Day

Thursday February 21
Chestnut Conference Centre
89 Chestnut Street, Toronto, ON

Click here to Register

Breakfast & Registration
Introductions
Ballroom East

Plenary:
Opening the Black Box: Using Learning Analytics to Improve Education in Psychiatry
Mahan Kulasegaram, PhD, Walter Tavares, PhD, Dr. Clyde Matava
Ballroom East

Applying Learner Analytics in Practice
Ballroom East

Lunch & Poster Session
Ballroom East & Giovanni Room

Workshops Session A
- Issues for Mid-Career Faculty
  Dr. Karen Leslie, Dr. Susan Lief
  Armoury Suite
- Coaching Summit
  Dr. John Teshima
  Lombard Suite 2nd floor

Workshops Session B
- Teaching Dossiers and Education Scholarship
  Dr. Ivan Silver, Dr. John Teshima
  Armoury Suite
- Longitudinal Ambulatory Experience Summit
  Dr. Karen Shin, Dr. Matt Boyle
  Lombard Suite

Wrap up & Evaluations
Ballroom East
8th Annual
Donald Wasylenki
Education Day
SPEAKERS

Matt Boyle, MD
Dr. Boyle is the Postgraduate Site Director at Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre.

Mahan Kulasegaram, PhD
Dr. Kulasegaram is a scientist at the Wilson Centre and his research examines assessment from both a psychometric and a cognitive perspective.

Clyde Matava, MD
Dr. Matava is an Assistant Professor and the Director of Innovation, Informatics and Technology, Department of Anesthesia and Pain Medicine at The Hospital for Sick Children.

Ivan Silver, MD, MEd
Dr. Silver has held many education leadership positions, including the founding Director of the Centre for Faculty Development and most recently the Vice-President of Education at CAMH.

Walter Tavares, PhD
Dr. Walter Tavares is a scientist at the Wilson Centre and his research examines ways of optimizing performance based assessments in work and simulation settings.

Karen Shin, MD
Dr. Shin is Medical Director of Ambulatory Mental Health Services at St. Michael’s and co-leading the development of the Longitudinal Ambulatory Experience across The Department of Psychiatry’s teaching sites.

John Teshima, MD, MEd
Dr. Teshima is the Director of Faculty Development for the Department of Psychiatry.