- Forensic Psychiatry: September 27 & 29, 2021
- Geriatric Psychiatry: October 7, 2021

Submission Package:

Applications MUST be submitted electronically to: subspecialty.psych@utoronto.ca

All applications are to be completed by the submission deadline of Wednesday, September 1, 2021

An application is deemed to be complete when all of the following components have been received:

1. Application Form: fully completed and signed
2. Updated CV. Areas to cover should include, but are not limited to, educational background, scholarly activities, and other accomplishments.
3. Personal statement (suggested maximum of 750 words). Areas to cover should include, but are not limited to, your interest in the subspecialty, your interest in applying to the University of Toronto specifically, your suitability as an applicant, and your possible career goals.
4. Residency Experience Form: fully completed
5. Copy of your ITERS from your General Psychiatry training (including off-service rotations and psychotherapy)
6. *Letter of Good Standing from current Residency Program Director
7. *2 Reference Letters (do not send more than 2). Letters should comment on your suitability to enter the subspecialty, as well as your competency in each of the Royal College CanMEDS roles (Medical Expert, Communicator, Collaborator, Leader, Health Advocate, Scholar, and Professional). However, if you are also applying to another program that requires reference letters to be in a specific format, we will accept that format as well.
The Letter of Good Standing and 2 Reference Letters should be sent directly by your Program Director and Referees, respectively, with the email subject line “Letter of Good Standing – Applicant’s Name” or “Subspecialty Reference Letter – Applicant’s Name.”

Note that each component of the submission package contributes to the evaluation of your application, and should be prepared with appropriate care with respect to content and formatting.

Please have each of these items submitted to subspecialty.psych@utoronto.ca by September 1, 2021.

Any questions regarding the process can be directed to Sandra Caswell at subspecialty.psych@utoronto.ca
