Please specify modality: ________________________________

Learning Objectives:

1. The ability to address and include child/adolescent developmental stage in assessment and treatment.

   1 2 3 4 5 N/A □

2. The ability to use appropriate psychotherapeutic theory to formulate and treat the child or adolescent.

   1 2 3 4 5 N/A □

3. The ability to use supervision in engaging, contracting, and working through the treatment process.

   1 2 3 4 5 N/A □

Comments:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Resident’s Signature / Date   Supervisor’s Signature / Date